

Influential Leadership

Overview

Leaders need to bring new perspectives, new think and new ideas to a workplace. This training course delves into the deeper side of communication, looking at strategies to develop highly functional and productive teams from the perspective of the leaders.

Based on extensive research and years of experience in human behaviour, this program will take you through the finer points of human behaviour and how to lead with passion and purpose to get the most out of your teams.

Course content

- Understand and construct active/constructive conversations.
- Quickly build rapport for stronger working relationships.
- Discover the science behind the positivity ratio and Project Aristotle.
- Understand the impact of aligning personal and company values.
- Develop planning strategies based on RACI – Responsible, Accountable, Consulted, Informed.
- Learn the importance of having crucial conversations.

Who's it for

This course is designed to inspire managers, team leaders and directors to become great leaders who have the ability to resolve challenging situations and take the lead more confidently and competently.

Options

Time: 2 hours to a full day
Delivery: Easily tailored to suit
(In-house workshop, webinar, group delivery or individual coaching)

(03) 5461 1254

www.bounceaustralia.com

bounceconsulting